Printing the Reporter

Can you help?

SIXTY copies of the Reporter were delivered very, very late last month. For this we apologise. The reason was that our printer broke down and it took a technician from Toshiba four visits and three weeks to identify and eventually repair the fault.

We have no back-up printer and to print the Reporter using a commercial printer is prohibitively expensive. So . . . can you, or the company you work for, possibly help us out should there be another major problem?

We print 520 copies of the Reporter every month and currently this is done using a photocopier that can print both sides of A3 paper – usually eight sheets per copy. Do you, or your company have a machine that could be made available for us, should the need arise? We cannot afford to pay commercial rates but will pay the actual cost of printing (we hold our own stock of paper).

If you can, or think that you may be able to help us, should the need arise, then please contact me on 01258 837921 or at the Reporter (reporter@milbornestandrew.org.uk).

Thank you. Ed Frost (on behalf of the Reporter Team)

A Trumpet Call

at the November meeting of the WI

OUR November meeting this year fell on Remembrance Day and it seemed fitting that our speaker, Colonel Torrent, should talk to us about the trumpet and bugle, and their use within the British infantry regiments. This versatile instrument has been an important part of Colonel Torrent's life ever since the age of 11, both during his army career and afterwards. As well as the trumpet's place in the cavalry, it encompasses classical, modern, jazz, dance, etc. To illustrate its versatility we were treated to a snatch of 'Misty' on a pocket trumpet, as well as the 'Last Post' on the bugle – not a dry eye in the house!

As ever, there is lots going on between meetings – Skittles: Nelda reported three wins, two losses and one to go – so we are still in with a chance! Book club: Two more members have joined, a reminder that we are happy to welcome non-WI members. Pub lunch on Tuesday 14th December will be a Christmas menu.

Autumn Council meeting June Maitland reported that the main speaker, Ann Widdecombe, had been replaced at short notice by Edwina Currie and she had proved to be well worth listening to. As an aside, June said it was interesting to note that apparently the WI has a reputation among politicians for being terrifying – exemplified by the slow-handclapping of Tony Blair at the WI's annual conference 10 years ago!

Our next meeting, on Thursday 9th December, will be our Christmas party – a reminder to bring along a plate of food, either savoury or sweet, plus a small gift. There will be a magician, but we are assured there will be no levitations or cutting in half, so we look forward to a cheery, uplifting and seasonal evening! Pat Bull

Milborne St. Andrew Remembers

IT was gratifying to see a large number of people from the village assemble at the Memorial Stone by Church Hill on Remembrance Sunday 14th November 2010.

The Last Post was played, followed by the two minute silence. The names of the fallen in the two World Wars were read out, and then the passage from Laurence Binyon's famous poem and the Kohima were heard.

Peter Dow laid the first wreath from the Royal British Legion then the Milborne St. Andrew Scouts laid their wreath in tribute to the fallen. Harry Alexander read a moving poem written by Sgt Andy McFarlane who has recently served in Afghanistan. The poem 'Sunset Vigil' relays the too often sad news of yet another casualty in that far off country.

With the passing of the last survivor of the First World War the emphasis for our remembrance shifts towards the current and recent conflicts since and including the Second World War, this was brought into focus by Dean Patrick who kindly took the prayers at our Remembrance Service. The work of the Royal British Legion, whilst apparently locked into the major conflicts of the last century, is in fact helping all those who have been injured or bereaved as a result of recent and ongoing conflicts. The work of the Royal British Legion does not end when the conflict ends but goes on for many years.

The poppy collection is vital in raising funds to help with the ongoing charity work and members of the Milborne St. Andrew section of the Royal British Legion thank all those who gave this year and their continuing support. As soon as the figures are available we will let you know via this medium.

A special mention should go to Geoff Cherry for the installation of the cut stone in front of the Memorial Stone which now allows the Remembrance Crosses to be placed securely and remain undisturbed during the grass cutting.

The views expressed in this magazine are not necessarily those of the Reporter team.

A Merry Christmas from the Reporter

The Reporter Team would like to thank the distributors, advertisers and contributors who have made our second year of publication so enjoyable and successful. May we wish you and our readers a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year? We look forward to your continuing support in 2011. Please note the revised date for copy for the January issue to the 14th December. We hope to distribute January's magazine before Christmas.

Wednesday Social club

ON the 3rd November we all met at the village hall to listen to a talk on British ceremonies and customs, given by Mr Alan Martin and assisted by his wife Jean.

Our journey started in Combe Martin, Devon and the "Hunting of the Earl of Rhone" ceremony. The Earl is a renegade and wanted by the authorities, and is caught ready for execution. He is sat to ride backwards on a donkey and periodically shot dead as the procession rides through the town. He is brought back to life by a 'Obby Oss' but when the revellers reach the beach he is shot for the last time and thrown into the sea from whence he came. Everyone then retires to the Top Pub to eat strawberry cake as a reminder of the early harvest here in the valley. This ceremony of death and rebirth is the basis for many events all over Britain.

Our next visit was to Olney in Bedfordshire where the Shrove Tuesday pancake race has been held for nearly 1,000 years and is restricted to 'ladies of the parish' only.

We then travelled to Cornwall to visit Helston and so the Furry Dance. This dance which takes place all day celebrates spring and the dancers are interrupted by St. Michel, St. George, St. Pirin and many more characters to remind 'Helstonians' of the various events in history when they have been saved from disaster.

With a side trip to see the Horn Dance, a very ancient dance, at Abbotts Ripton, we returned to the west country to visit the Sailors Obby Oss at Minehead and then onto Padstow in Cornwall to meet their two Osses in a dance that goes on all day and often gets very rowdy. All of which are fertility dances.

At one time there used to take place Hurling Ceremonies all over Britain but the only two that remain are held at St. Ives and St. Columb, both in Cornwall. This is a game of catch using a silver ball.

Scotland has a "Green man" ceremony held at Ferry Bridge where a man covered in Burrs parades through the streets collecting money for charity. His only sustenance is whisky taken through a straw!!

With visits to Castleton in Derbyshire to see the Garlanding ceremony, we went on to explore Morris Dancing in its various forms throughout the country.

Harvest brought its own fun with Straw Bears at Whittlesey and the history of corn dollies. We then looked at the various Church Bosses and the arrival in Britain of the "Three Hares" symbol all the way down the 5,000 years of travel from China.

Finally we witnessed the great Viking Fire ceremony of "Up Helly-Aa" which is held in Lerwick, Shetland in the first week of January. Men dressed as Vikings parade a replica of a long ship through the street and at midnight it is set on fire to re-enact a Viking Funeral event.

Then we had a short look at Iceland and the Volcano that erupted earlier this year. Jean had taken some terrific photos of this and the colours were spectacular. It was very interesting. It really was a fire and ice, programme. The ice that is thousands of years old is a steel blue and like glass or as strong as steel. Incredible.

December is our Christmas Lunch; we have 59 members and friends booked for the outing.

January 12th our New Year Party 2.00pm, with live entertainment and hot buffet in The Royal Oak. All welcome. Tickets £8.00 payable in advance. Please book with Margaret Evans 01258 450518. Wishing all our members and friends a Happy and Peaceful Christmas and a Healthy New Year
Eve Richardson

Two local gentlemen pass away

Charles (Charlie) Morby

Passed away peacefully on 16th November 2010 at Dorset County Hospital aged 92 years.

Dearest dad of Roy, Christine and Barbara.

Funeral service at St. Andrew's Church on Friday 26th November at 2.00pm

Patrick Hurley 1937-2010

A MUCH loved and well known resident of Milborne St. Andrew, Patrick Hurley, suffered a cerebral haemorrhage on 28th October and died less than 24 hours later, aged 73 years.

Pat could never have been described as a 'larger than life' character, but he certainly didn't pass unnoticed. Since moving with his wife Margaret to MSA 11 years ago to be near the younger of his two daughters, he joined wholeheartedly into village life, being a member of the Food and Wine Society and the Gardening Club, playing a key role in the development and care of the club's allotment.

But what some may not have realised was the breadth of his interests and expertise. Pat had an enormous thirst for knowledge, had to know how things worked, could never leave something broken if he could find a way to fix it, and over the course of his life turned his hand to an amazing array of pastimes which included: woodwork, playing the piano, kite-making, car-restoration, embroidery, jewellery-making and enamelling, photography, researching his family tree and candle-making. His hot cross buns won prizes in the village show, and his home-made Punch and Judy show delighted first his own children and then 30 years later, his grandchildren.

It was his self-taught engineering skills however that were perhaps the most remarkable. He had a lifelong passion for steam and built a number of precision-crafted working models of steam engines – as well as fun ones made from a dog-food tin and a rubber glove! – and at the time of his death was close to completing possibly the only accurate model in existence of the Agenoria, one of the earliest steam locomotives, pre-dating Stephenson's Rocket.

He was a member of the Dorset Clock Society, building a beautiful array of clocks from components he made himself and repairing numerous others for friends.

He put his engineering skills to use in his work for Remap (a charity which makes custom made equipment for people with disabilities), providing one-off gadgets to a number of local people ranging from toddlers to Senior Citizens and also taught literacy and maths to adults in Dorchester.

In the last few years he had been carefully researching and recording the gravestones in the older part of St. Andrew's churchyard, despite the fact that many of them are virtually illegible. He had intended to make all the information available on the village website both for locals but also for anyone researching their own family tree who might like to know where their relatives are buried. (This information is available if anyone would like to complete the project).

He will, of course, be much missed by his family – and indeed by all those from the village who had the privilege of knowing him.

Dear Friends,

Christmas Journeys

I love journeys, and I am always a little excited by them.

There is something adventurous about a journey - something a little unpredictable - they are outside the normal day to day routine, and always contain something of the unknown.

Perhaps that is why journeys have always been such a significant part of Christian spirituality (and indeed the spirituality of many faiths).

Pilgrimage is the historical expression of this - the journey to a special or holy place in search of some new insight into God. And in pilgrimage, although the destination is important (or else there would be no point in making the journey) it is the journey itself which makes the biggest impact on the life of a pilgrim.

The Christmas story is full of journeys. There is the journey Mary and Joseph made to Bethlehem. The journey the shepherds made, coming in from the fields to find a baby in a stable. And of course the journey which the Magi made with gold, frankincense, and myrrh to seek the new born king.

Not all journeys are chosen, of course. Mary and Joseph would certainly not have chosen their enforced journey from Nazareth to Bethlehem, and could not have possibly foreseen the greater journey into Egypt fleeing for their lives with a new born baby.

But journeys change us. They take us out of our comfort zone into a less regulated world where the possibilities are endless, either for things to go according to plan or not.

So what about our Christmas journey this year?

Are we going to do things the way we always have, or are we going to be open to God doing something new in our lives?

Believe it or not - we don't have to even leave home to go on a journey. In a recent BBC2 series "The Big Silence" a group of very busy, sceptical, 'not very religious' people spent some time in silence to try to connect with something deeper in their lives, perhaps even with God. As they explored the much undervalued path of silence, they began to experience life in a new way; began to talk to God and hear him talk to them; they also found themselves, and the parts they usually keep hidden. They went on a brave journey - a journey into the unknown, with all the uncertainties and freedoms which that can bring, and it was profoundly spiritual experience.

So why not make some time for silence in your spiritual journey this advent?

Just a few minutes a day would do it - allowing yourself to be quiet and still - setting aside the worries or concerns of the hour to be at peace with God.

If you do this, you may well find yourself embarking on a journey deeper into yourself and deeper into God.

And when we embark on a journey, who knows what might happen . . .

God Bless and Keep You

Benny Hazlehurst

MILBORNE ST. ANDREW CHURCH NOTES

DO YOU remember this from our last year's Christmas Market when we launched our "Flush Fund" for the new facilities in the church?

The response has been quite good so far, we wonder if you have any pennies in your jar. Would you like to let us have them either to Eva (837468) or Pat (837684) or bring them to a church service by the end of December so that they will be calculated into the 'end of year financial report'. Then we can report on how the Flush Fund is progressing. Please keep on saving your pennies.

Our next big fund-raising event towards the new facilities will be when we welcome "The Mill Singers Male Voice Choir" on Saturday 11th December at 7.30pm in the church. They will be entertaining us with some Sacred Compositions, Spirituals, Humour, and Christmas readings and songs. I can assure you of a very entertaining evening. Please come and support this event. If you would like a lift ring Eva or Pat.

Our Remembrance Day Service was well attended with the service being conducted by the Ven. Patrick Evans. It was very good to see the Cubs and their leaders in church. We hope to make more of their attendance and parade next year by arranging to formally receive their flag. We then paraded down to the Memorial Stone to join members of the Royal British Legion for 11.00am. There were well over 100 people.

Christmas (Fairy) Fair

With a few waves of wands (and a lot of hard work from a lot of people) the village was transformed on 20th November into a wonderland. When Father Christmas arrived at noon he was greeted by Fairy Nuff (who looked suspiciously like an elf), the Condor Ferries, The Brittany Fairies, Fairy Good, and many more. Some of the costumes were . . . intriguing!

For the next three hours the hall was busy. Bargains were bought, games played and home made soup, mulled wine, tea and fairy cakes were consumed. A good many children went into Santa's grotto and came out clutching presents and looking very happy.

As I write there is still some money to come in, but when everything is finalised and bills paid, the church funds will receive a little over £900. A very big thank you to everyone who helped in any way to raise this magnificent sum. Those who donated items for stalls, cooked, helped on the day, pushed fliers through letter boxes, and of course spent money at the fair all played their part.

Thank you all very much.

Pat Tribe Churchwarden

DEWLISH CHURCH NOTES

Christmas carols take to the trees!

OUR CHRISTMAS Bazaar will be held in the Village Hall on Saturday 4th December, starting at 2.30pm. Stalls will include a children's activity table, new goods and gifts, cakes and produce, toys, Christmas decorations, bric-a-brac and books. There will also be a raffle and teas and mince pies. We would be grateful for any donations but, most of all, to see you there!

The Carol Service will be held at 3.00pm on Sunday 19th December, and this will mark the beginning of our Christmas Tree Festival. The church will be open in the afternoons of 20th-24th December inclusive, from 3.00-4.30pm, and tea, coffee and biscuits will be available. The theme for the tree decorating is Christmas Carols. Tea and mince pies are also available in the hall after our Carol Service. The collection from that will be donated to the Children's Society.

We shall be singing carols round the village on Tuesday 21st December, meeting at the crossroads at 6.30pm. Donations from this will be given to Shelter. As you can see from the above, it's a very busy time for us, just as it will be for all the churches in the benefice of course. We send our warmest best wishes to you all.

Poignant words of remembrance

At our Remembrance Day service a large crowd, including Scouts and Beavers, gathered at the War Memorial to remember all who had died in their service to our country during, and since, the First World War. The service then continued in church. Thank you, Norman, for all your poignant words. The wreath was laid by Mr John Seymour, himself an ex-serviceman. Thank you, John.

Our very talented flower arrangers

We celebrated our Patronal Festival (All Saints) on 31st October with a benefice service. The white flower arrangements throughout the church looked splendid and, for that, we thank our very talented flower arrangers. The service was followed by tea and cakes in the Village Hall, and it was lovely to see all our friends from the benefice while enjoying the tea. Many thanks to all who contributed.

Fireworks display went with a bang

May I congratulate Dewlish Cricket Club once again for staging such a fantastic fireworks display. I know how much hard work goes into the organisation of this event, and especially on the night. It was very well attended and much enjoyed. Thank you all very much.

Daphne Burg

Milborne St. Andrew Gardening Club

THE speaker for our October meeting unfortunately had to cancel, but James Foster-Pegg from Poundbury Garden Centre stepped in and entertained us with advice and tips on growing fruit and vegetables in containers.

Our next meeting on Thursday 2nd December will be our AGM, accompanied by mulled wine and small eats. We hope all members will come and join in, and also have a look at our exciting programme for 2011.

The speaker for our first meeting in the New Year, on Thursday 27th January, will be Philip Gamble, who will be giving a talk on Maintaining Colour in the Garden Without Flowers. From the look of my garden at the moment, this could be quite useful! Linda Harris

Christmas is coming

THAT talented man John Wright has been to Ladybirds again. This time making Christmas cake with the children. They weighed and mixed together the ingredients then John took home the mixture to cook two large cakes. These will be cut into squares and decorated by the children before wrapped and given to parents as Christmas presents.

Over the next weeks there will be many more makes for Christmas involving pens, paint, paper, card, ribbon, glue and of course glitter!

After all this hard work the children will be having a well deserved party at which a well known old gentleman will make an appearance.

"CHRISTMAS CAROLS IN THE PUB"

14th DECEMBER
7.30pm

Everyone Welcome!
Come along, wear a silly Santa hat (mistletoe is risky!)
and join in for an hour or so, to welcome in the festive season.
(No auditions required!!)

There will be a collection during the evening for the church 'Children's Society'

Christmas Carols in the pub

THE Royal Oak will host The Weatherbury Singers on Tuesday 14th December at 7.30pm for an hour of Christmas carols. Everyone is welcome, so come along, let your hair down and join in many of the simple festive vocal favourites whilst holding a glass of your favourite tittle.

Song-sheets provided but after all these years you should know the words anyway! (No auditions required!) The choir will perform some additional Christmas carol "specials" during the evening so you can all have a breather, and there will be a collection during the evening in aid of the "Children's Society" for the church, so a few spare bob in the box would be very much appreciated.

The choir and the pub look forward to seeing you all there in fine, lubricated voice and, if you want to festively dress for the occasion – a Santa hat (?) – then please feel free to do so. (Use mistletoe at your peril!)

The Milborne Players

3rd, 4th and 5th February 2011

Village Hall, Milborne St. Andrew

Something to definitely put in your diary to blow away the winter blues
REHEARSALS are now in full flow for this truly original production of a well known classic pantomime written by our very own Ron Karley. All the traditional characters, very ugly sisters, wicked stepmother, a hardup Baron and helpful Buttons, not forgetting of course the environmentally conscious Prince Charming and his side kick Dandini, all of whom play their role in the fate of Cinders. We must not of course forget the forces of good and evil which are brought to life by the good fairy, Bumblebore and the wicked Wizard Mouldymort who battle through the show with their own power struggle. The main cast are joined by some celebrity beauticians and a small army of young people playing their part in supporting roles and production chorus numbers.

Remember this is an original show. Will there be a Ball? Will Cinders go? What happens to her footwear and how will it all turn out in the end? Only way you will know is to come along and find out. Four performances including a Saturday matinee. Tickets available for advance booking from Sid Coe on 01258 837453 now or from the MstA Londis from the 4th January 2011.

Caroline Nobbs Production Manager

Cat Burglar!

Has anybody lost a small, young, black and white cat which appears to be semi-feral? It is raiding houses in the St. Andrew's View area at night in search of food. In some houses it has been in fights with the resident cats.

If you have lost a cat fitting this description, or have any information which might help to reunite the cat with its owner, please contact Sally Dyer on 837061.

Parish Council Meeting – 10th November – Bits of interest

WE had a full house of councillors at the meeting – four councillors plus the Clerk to the Council (both retiring and incoming). This is due to the resignation of another councillor. We have been losing them at the rate of nearly one every three months. Chairman Michael Hopper pleaded and urged that more people come forward, as a reasonable sized village we deserve a full complement of seven.

New Parish Clerk appointed

We have a new clerk – Joyce Holman was introduced to the public at the Parish Council Meeting. At present she works at Sherborne Town Council, and has previous experience of being a Parish Clerk. This was evident when a question was asked about the cumbersome way the Clerks wages were paid, with a cheque countersigned by two people. She has said there is a way that it can be paid by direct debit. A step into the 21st century maybe?

Drains and “Fix My Street”

Our road drains have been “rodded” but not sucked out, which means that they are not as clear as they could be. We need as many residents as possible to go on the “Fix my Street” website to report any road issues, from blocked road drains, to wonky bollards, the council DO take notice, especially if there is more than one report of any problems.

Doom and Gloom – the way of the world!

Della Jones (NDDC) attended the meeting, she warned that car park charge increases are likely to come into force in Blandford, that the District Council is cutting services, in many places by collaborating with adjoining councils to pool resources.

Milton Road Corner Saga

Our Parish Council wrote to the Highways and Transportation department at County Hall as regards the tightness of the corner, and that vehicles have to mount the pavement at times to get safely around into Milton Road, the Highways letter of reply says that “contrary to the perceived judgement of local residents, the new kerb line actually widened the Milton Road at its narrowest point by approximately 100mm” and that, with regard to the mounting of the pavement, “two local hauliers . . . agreed that it has always been difficult turning”, that “the recent works have in no way made negotiating it less safe”. The PC also asked whether the white painted lines showing the planting proposals could be removed. In their response, they say “they would have been removed if the proposed works would have taken place” and that they should be removed “by means of a pressurised jet washer . . . undertaken by the local community”. The PC now have to seek a licence to fix the planters, seat and bin from another department! And by now the lines may have been removed by a member of the PC, acting as an individual (because they are not allowed to do it officially)! Oh the joys of red tape!

Caravans on the Sports Field

The PC have given permission for the Sports Club to continue to seek the correct permissions to allow up to 20 caravans on specific events to use the sports field (not the football pitch) in closed season. By only allowing specific events, it is easier to police and control.

Do you want an allotment?

The Parish Council have agreed to investigate the possibility of allotments next to the Sports Field at the top of the village. But they need some sort of Allotment Group/Society/Gathering of people who have to, as a group, show that it is needed. We’ve been told that in one local town, there is a waiting list of years! So now is our chance to get one locally. If you are interested to know more, please contact Parish Council chairman, Mick Hopper. If you prefer, the Reporter, in this instance, will be pleased to pass on expressions of interest to the Council on your behalf.

The Next Meeting is on the 8th December 2010 at 7.30pm in the Village Hall.

Weather in Milborne St. Andrew October 2010

OCTOBER 2010 was a kindly month as Octobers go. Total rainfall of 84.8mm was 85% of average but there was rain all day on the 1st of the month amounting to 34.5mm, which will probably be the highest daily rainfall this year, and this made the rest of the month quite dry. There were only three air frosts during the month which made it a ‘growthy’ month.

This was not the case 50 years ago. 1960 was the wettest autumn on record for parts of southern England and the West Country. The main street of Bridport was flooded to 5ft but the Exeter area fared worst of all. Exeter was temporarily cut off with every road out of the city under water for 48 hours. On 6th October over a thousand homes were flooded in Exmouth. Some 20 people were rescued by boat from upstairs windows in Cornwall. The wet weather continued into November with further floods carrying away furniture, cars and caravans.

November so far has been a quite a wet month with much needed rainfall to swell the aquifers but the days have been dull and dreary and it was probably these sort of days which prompted Percy Bysshe Shelley to write;

“The warm sun is failing, the bleak wind is wailing,
The bare boughs are sighing, the pale flowers are dying,
And the year
On the earth her deathbed, in a shroud of leaves dead,
Is lying.”

FIRST CLASS CARPENTRY AND BUILDING WORK

Mucky 'goings on' at the Village Hall

A 'must-have' on your Christmas list to Santa this year can be that new tennis racquet and a set of 'green flash' pumps you had always promised yourself because if everything continues according to schedule, the MUGA court will be up and running by mid-December. The final green surface coating and permanent sport line markings will be applied in the Spring of 2011.

One of the critical factors of the design criteria was that the surface had to be built to LTA standards and big enough to allow recreational tennis to be played and that is what we will have. We also had a mountain of earth to get rid of but that is another story.

Quote from the quote

Tennis Posts; Supply and erect playing posts consisting of 75mm square aluminium finished in green. These will be fitted with an external brass winding mechanism. They will be erected in galvanized sockets previously set in concrete. A top quality braided playing net with braiding along the bottom and sides and fitted with a cotton headband, adjuster and ground anchorage will be installed for Tournament or Club use. Price £570 plus the dreaded VAT.

All that the trustees need to do now is decide how to manage the use of the nets. Leaving them out to be abused or nicked is not an option so any ideas will be gratefully received, either from casual users or the new Tennis Club user group!

Now Hear this . . . we only need to say it once

All Hall users can now use the Hall's extensive audio and lighting system. The Players group has wired up the controls that are external to the Control Room and a simple user guide has been provided that makes it easy-peasy to use. So, if you just need general amplification through the extensive speaker system that is automatically fed through the hearing loop as well there are now connection points at the front and the rear of the main hall. Microphones are also available on request and as with the Broadband connection; these are provided as part of the all-in hire charge.

It never rains, it pours

The trustees hope to complete the roofing of the new extension once the current spate of rainfall relents and the roofers can get on with the task. Hearn Roofing will be applying Fibreglass over the top of the existing felt roof using Hambleside Danelaw Dryseal Roofing system. We are told that this has a guarantee for 20 years and is ideally suited for this job.

The cost to do the flat roof will be £840+ VAT. Money continues to pour in from the Lottery and we have just been awarded a further grant of £450 towards this work. Why only £450? Well in any two year period you are only allowed £10,000. The 1st Awards 4 All was for £7,500. When that two year period ran out we were granted a further £9,500 for more improvements including the rendering of the external walls. That was 18 months ago, for those good at basic arithmetic the £450 puts us at £50 under the magic ceiling of £10,000.

Wanted, a Trojan Horse, pretty quick

With 180 tonnes of topsoil to move as part of the MUGA we now get to the mucky goings on bit. Plan A was for the contractor to remove the soils at a cost of £2,000. We declined that offer and Plan B was for the topsoil to be given to the Sports Club providing they made arrangements to remove the soil at no cost to the VH. Plan B went 'belly up' on the day the mountain of earth appeared (Thursday) and the sports club realized that they did not have the means to remove it. Plan C was to find out how much it would cost for contractor on site to remove it to the sports ground and we were told the cost would be £600.

The trustees project team met in emergency session and agreed to offer the topsoil to the Sports Club on the condition that they paid the going rate for the move. The members of the Sports Club desperately wanted the stuff to complete the cricket square but declined the offer as they had no funds to pay for the operation even on a DFS style deferred payment terms. (We are now at 10.00pm on the same day that Plan B went belly up!).

It was imperative that the soil was removed so at 7.30am on the next morning we moved to Plan D and asked the contractor what he would pay the VH to move the stuff on and we were quoted £40 a lorry load or about £320. Another emergency Trustees project meeting later, we agreed to 'take the hit' rather than 'take the money' and to move the topsoil to the sports club as part of the MUGA contract. The thinking being that we were moving what was essentially a community resource from one part of the village to another for the long term benefit of the community. As a result the move took place on the very next day (Friday).

The sting in the tail, and there always is one it seems, was that during the move to the Council owned sports ground enough 'agitation' was generated to cause the contractor to send out a road sweeper to clear mud from the Causeway, Lane End and Blandford Hill. The VH Trustees have now been 'hit' by the cost of that operation to the tune of some £132. The interesting thing is that the lorry only put his rear wheels on our mud but when he arrived at the Sports Club, in an act of friendly co-operation he tracked over the mud to the centre of the cricket pitch and dumped his loads. After the 'agitation' he dumped the remainder alongside the sports club building.

Ah well, pity it wasn't Dewlish or Roke Road eh the stuff is axle deep there!!

PS If you would like to join our happy band of trustees we are doing what is on our label "making a difference". Want to join in the fun?

Moviola presents "Robin Hood" (12A)

at Milborne St. Andrew Village Hall on Thursday 16th December 2010 at 8.00pm

THIS film tells the story of the man behind the legend. It starts in 1199 when Robin Longstride (Russell Crowe) is a common archer in Richard the Lionheart's (Danny Huston) army. While returning from the Crusades, King Richard is killed in battle with the French. Another warrior, a knight, lies dying and is comforted by Robin, who promises to take the man's sword back to his father, Walter (Max Von Sydow) in Nottingham. Robin arrives in Nottingham to find the town suffering from a despotic sheriff and crippling taxation, and it is here that he encounters the spirited widow Lady Marion and also Loxley's old and blind father Sir Walter (Max von Sydow) who asks him to continue impersonating his son, in order to prevent the family lands being taken by the crown. Robin hopes to save the town and earn Marion's hand by assembling a gang with lethal fighting skills with whom he begins preying on the rich and corrupt.

Several historical inaccuracies are present, but the film's theme is never give up, as we are swept back in time to the 13th century where treachery, greed and ambition swirl together like perilous quicksand. Those expecting a typical Robin Hood adventure, featuring the man in tights living in Sherwood Forest with his merry men will be sorely disappointed, but it is a sweeping epic executed in a manner that makes all the spectacle and pageantry appear effortless. The film ends where the Robin Hood story traditionally begins.

For more information see the Dorset Moviola web site <http://www.moviola.org/> or www.robinhoodthemovie.com

The village hall is open from 7.30pm and the film starts at 8.00pm. Tickets £5.00.

A Christmas walk

A 4 mile walk – to walk off the turkey

Remember to wear appropriate footwear – it may be muddy!

FROM the Square walk down Chapel Street and continue through the gate onto Manor Farm. Pass the stone pillars and bear right to a stile. Continue ahead through another gate and to a stile alongside the beech trees. Once over the stile, turn sharp right and keeping the beech trees on your immediate right head for a wicket gate.

Follow the path along the shallow valley passing through two more gates. At the next farm gate turn left then right so that the hedge is now on your right.

You will soon pass West End Barn. At the end of the field turn right along the bridgeway which will take you to the A354 at Milborne Wood. Take great care crossing the road, and turn left along the road for about 15 metres. Turn right onto a bridgeway with a field on your right followed by a hazel coppice.

Stay on this path for about 600 metres, then look out for a footpath on your right. There is a yellow waymark on one of the bushes. The footpath follows the edge of the coppice which is on your right. Having turned right here, walk along the edge of the coppice until you come to a big oak tree on the further corner of the wood.

Turn left and walk along the boundary between two fields, heading for another wood and a deer-stalkers platform. As you enter the wood take the main path straight ahead and proceed to the Dewlish Road. Turn right along the road and continue back to the village. Anne Snape

LETTERS TO THE REPORTER

Dear Editor

Why? is a question I often ask myself. The 'why' which is dominating my thoughts is why is it that so few people of the village put themselves forward to join the Parish Council. The freedoms we do enjoy have been hard fought for and there are those in government who would dearly love to remove those rights given half the chance.

Universal suffrage or the right of everyone, with a few exceptions, over the age of majority to vote and participate in all forms of local and national government, to have opinions that differ from your friend or neighbour and within the democratic framework work towards those things that you believe in and make a difference.

My Great Grandfathers did not have the vote until 1884, my Grandmothers did not have the vote until 1930, some women did achieve suffrage in 1918 but very few.

I can see a point where there are insufficient members of the council for it to function according to the law. What happens then is, as I understand it, all decisions affecting the parish will be made by North Dorset District Council. The precept, that is the amount of council tax raised and spent in this parish, will be determined by North Dorset District Council with no guarantee that the money will be used for the benefit of the parish. The district council has long wanted the parish council to raise the local tax well over what it requires locally and handover the extra to be spent by them. Without a Parish Council this would be an ideal opportunity for them to do what they liked with no recourse from the population of Milborne St. Andrew.

In May 2011 local elections should be called to form a new Council, will there be enough candidates to hold an election here in Milborne St. Andrew, I doubt it. I came to the village in 1993 and there has never been an election in all that time, all current members of the Parish Council have been co-opted (invited to serve).

I can only assume that residents are in general happy with this situation. If this is the case so be it but if you have strong opinions and want to have an influence on the workings of the Parish Council please come and join us or stand for election next May.

Yours faithfully Michael Hopper

Ask Millie – your problems solved

Dear Millie

Further to your useful suggestions about 'Trick or Treaters' in the November Reporter. I find that offering the children some home-made pumpkin soup when they ring the doorbell also does the trick. Worth it to see the look of horror on their little faces.

Millie says – Thank you, I look forward to trying this out next Halloween. I bet all the children reading this can hardly wait.

Dear Millie

I notice that you only offer an e-mail address for people to get in touch with you. What about the many people in the village who do not have a computer?

Millie says – Everyone in Milborne St. Andrew has free access to e-mail at the Monday night computer group, also for 50p a session all ages can use the Friday morning drop-in. I understand that free expert help is available at both sessions. However, if you don't want to use e-mail, you can leave a hand written letter addressed to Millie c/o The Reporter at the Friday drop-in or Monday night group. You could drop it in on your way to do your washing in the stream.

Last month's problem – leaving rubbish bags out early

Millie says – Many elderly, ill or disabled people depend on friends, relatives and neighbours to put out their rubbish bags for them. I suggest you offer to put their rubbish out when you do yours. If you feel their rubbish is particularly unsightly then perhaps you could try decorating it with a few strands of tinsel and some fairy lights. Nothing too over-the-top though.

Next month's problem – Dear Millie, My neighbour has a dog which barks non-stop when left alone in the house. It drives me mad every afternoon when she picks up her children from school. What can I do?

Questions and answers welcome: e-mail millie@milbornestandrew.org.uk or address envelopes to Millie c/o The Reporter and leave at the village hall.

Christmas Spirit!

THIS recipe (thank you Cynthia) complements last month's Sloe Gin recipe. I make them on alternate years. The finished drink is the most beautiful vibrant red colour and both smells and tastes like Christmas.

- 1lb cranberries
- 2 clementines
- 1lb granulated sugar
- 1 cinnamon stick
- 16 fl oz vodka
- Sterilised jar with lid to hold 1½ pints.

I use a Kilner jar.

1. Process the raw cranberries in a food processor or crush using a pestle and mortar. Spoon the pulp into the jar.
2. Pare rind very thinly from clementines avoiding the white pith. Squeeze juice then add juice and peel to the jar.
3. Add sugar, cinnamon stick and vodka to jar and seal lid. Shake well to combine.
4. Store in a cool place for one month, shaking the jar daily for two weeks then occasionally.
5. After a month transfer into sterile containers using a funnel and filter paper to clear.

Serve neat as a winter warmer or dilute with sparkling water or wine. Best left to mature, but can be made now in time for Christmas. Like the Sloe Gin, when transferred into pretty bottles, it makes an ideal Christmas gift.

In your Garden

Seasonal notes and tips from Maureen Lock of Designer Gardens

Winter garden

THE gardens look such a mess at this time of the year – there's not too much to do apart from clearing up all those pesky leaves – which seem to keep appearing. As soon as you've cleared up one load, another lot miraculously appear!

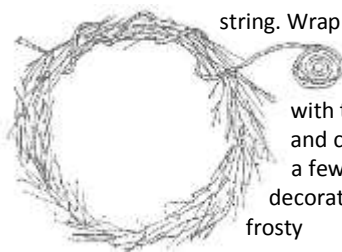

Of course, there is still planting to be done, and between now and March/April is the VERY best time to plant bare root trees and roses. Don't plant them when the ground is frozen or waterlogged, and if you can't plant them straight away because of unfavourable conditions, then just heel the plants in to protect the roots.

Heeling in is when you dig a V shaped trench that is wide and deep enough to hold the roots of the plant. Lay the plant/tree at an angle so that the roots are at the bottom and the trunk or base of the plant is resting on the side of the trench. Backfill with soil to cover up the roots – don't cover the stem or trunk (or the crown of the plant) as it will rot. Plants can be left heeled in for several months but it's best to plant them in their permanent home within a few weeks or you stand the risk of them bursting into life before planting.

Christmas will soon be upon us, and the garden is a great source of home-grown decorations. It is really easy and fun to make an attractive holly wreath for the front door – you just need some stiff garden wire, raffia or string, sprigs of evergreen shrubs such as ivy, rosemary, euonymus, conifer leaves and holly with berries.

Coil the wire into a circle several thicknesses deep and tie with string. Wrap with synthetic moss (the sort you use for lining hanging baskets) and completely cover the wire frame with the moss. Gather up some fir, pine and cedar foliage (to create texture) – add a few blue spruce sprigs to give your decoration a frosty appearance.

Shiny holly, bay or laurel leaves will add some natural shine and break up the uniformity of the evergreen needles. Tuck in some other leafy clippings such as ivy, euonymus and eucalyptus. Now for the best bit – decorate your wreath with fir cones, crab apples, cinnamon sticks and anything else you fancy to give it some colour.

Spare a thought too for the birds – If you have left the seedheads on your plants you will have created a shelter and food for wildlife as well as providing additional interest in your border. Did you know that seedheads provide protein and carbohydrates for birds such as finches. Their long beaks are ideal for getting the seeds out of the husks. Ladybirds and beetles often shelter inside seed husks and hollow stems. When planning your garden for next year, you might like to consider placing plants that have attractive seedheads where you can see them from the house.

MILBORNE ST. ANDREW FIRST SCHOOL

Learning together, playing together;
all for one, one for all

SCHOOL NEWS

Have we had visitors from another planet?

LAST week, during their Aliens and Space topic work, some of the children made a strange discovery in the school grounds. Jessica, one of our year 2 pupils, has summarised the events as follows:

On the 11th November at Milborne St. Andrew School, the Year 2 and Year 1 children saw a man. Nobody knew who he was or why he was at the school. Mrs Andrews said the class could go and look. Mrs Andrews said "get your coats on and we'll all walk up". Mrs Hammond and her class came along too. The man had put police tape around four burnt marks on the ground. The man said "hello" and Mrs Hammond said "hello" back. The man wanted some people to put masks on so they could get closer to the marks. The masks were to help keep the children safe. Then everyone started to look around for clues. We found an egg and Mrs Andrews told the man. The man picked the egg up and Mrs Hammond got a box, it had two boxes inside with tissue paper and a note, which had funny writing. The man put the egg in the box. Everybody carried on searching for another egg. We found another egg which was put into the box too.

Nobody knew what the marks were, what the eggs were or what the writing meant! The man took the tape down and we said goodbye. Mrs Hammond carried the eggs into her class and put them away safely. The children got ready for home time!

As soon as we have more details we will let everyone know, but in the meantime please don't worry or have nightmares, we are sure these creatures (from outer space?) are very friendly!

Children in Need

On Children in Need Day the children (and some adults) came to school in their pyjamas rather than school uniform. In exchange we collected toys for the Dorchester Women's Refuge. We have supported this local charity through our harvest festival and were keen to help as we know that they need activity packs for any children who may arrive at the refuge. We are very thankful to the Milborne WI, who have been making fabric bags for us to fill with our gifts. As well as supporting our local children in need through this, we also held a collection for the national charity on the day raising £79. Thank you to everyone who made any contribution.

Milton Abbas Sports Club/Cycling Cycle Buying Tips

IF you are thinking of buying your child a bike this Christmas there are some golden rules you need to bear in mind. Here are two of the most important ones.

1. Make sure it's the right size. It's better to progress in stages than to fit your child onto the biggest bike they can pedal and hope they grow into it; you can always hand down or sell on used bikes that have been looked after.
2. To ride a bike safely you need to be able to touch the ground – with the balls of your feet when sitting on the saddle – and your hands need to be able to reach the brakes properly without changing the hand hold.

Riding a bike is fun, but only when done safely. For more information about buying the right size bike for your child this Christmas contact Milton Abbas Sports Club/Cycling for a Buyers Guide and helpful information. ## A Dorset Walk Hardy Monument – Maiden Castle

10–12 miles walk

NOTE: If you intend to stop at the Brewer's Arms for lunch make sure you set off in plenty of time as the pub closes at 3.00pm and stops serving food at 2.30pm. Note also that the Brewer's Arms is closed on Mondays.

AN all-day walk taking in some of Dorset's most important ancient monuments, some of its best views – and one of its best pubs!

Park at the Hardy Monument, map reference SY613876. Walk due south down into the trees, bearing left all the time until you come back to the road. Turn right and walk down the road for a few yards until you come to a footpath sign directing you to the ridgeway track on the right. Take this track and walk east through the famous collection of bronze-age barrows known as Bronkham Hill Barrow Cemetery.

Keep to the Ridgeway track for another mile or so, ignoring two bridleways leading off to the left directing you to Martinstown. At map reference SY645867 you will come across a third bridleway, this one leading you down the hill to the left directly towards Maiden Castle. The path leaves the first field via a gate in the north-western corner and then crosses a second field passing just to the right of a group of three barrows. Again you leave this field via a gate in the north-western corner. Do the same in the third field (the paths here do not strictly follow the routes shown on the OS map) and you will reach a stony track running north and then east into Higher Ashton Farm.

Walk through the farm to the B3159 and follow this for a short distance northwards, turning right onto the Winterborne Monkton Road. After crossing the Winterborne the road turns sharp right but we carry on through the gate to Maiden Castle, walking north up the hill to the west gate. You really ought to spend a hour or two at this most historic and atmospheric site, but your legs or stomach might tell you otherwise. So we'll carry on along the main track until a bridleway takes us away in a northerly direction towards Poundbury. Thankfully we turn off left after a short distance and walk towards the far more attractive Clandon Farm.

Follow the way markers through the farm, keeping a westerly route across the Martinstown road and along the northern edge of a line of trees which lead you in to the village after about 300 yards. Turn left to the main road and then turn right walking through the village until you reach the Brewer's Arms. If it's before 2.30pm you're in luck because they will still be serving food. If not enjoy a pint in the garden anyway before walking back through the village looking for the bridleway opposite the church.

Take this track into the beautiful valley marked on the map as Grove Hill Bottom. After a while the track forks; we take the western route to Pen Barn Farm after which we climb up the hill back to the ridgeway at Bronkham. From here it's less than a mile back to the car park.

Boots on for Milborne mini teams

MILBORNE Sports Mini Soccer Development Centre requires a few more members.

The club is looking to enter two teams in the Dorset Mini Soccer League next season at under-10s and under-8s level.

Children aged from six to 10 years are welcome to come along to the Wednesday night training sessions, where there is a strong emphasis on fun and soccer skills development.

The club has organised a Christmas Special Fun Soccer School on Monday, December 20 (10.00am–2.00pm) at Milton Abbas sports ground.

If any parent would like further details about joining the club or taking part in the Christmas Special Fun Soccer School telephone the head coach Bob Mowlem on 01305 751930.
